

Network of Victim Assistance
 Advocacy, Support, and Prevention for Crime Victims in Bucks County, Pennsylvania

Prevention Education Guide Elementary Education • Menu of Services

Working together for safer communities.

2370 York Road • Suite B1 • Jamison, PA 18929
 (215) 343-6543 • TTY (215) 343-6299 • FAX: (215) 343-6260
 www.novabucks.org • 24-Hour Hotline 1-800-675-6900

Programs for parents of elementary-aged children

Safe and Appropriate Touch

Parent

► Personal Safety Program Preview

Personal Safety Parent Preview offers parents the opportunity to preview NOVA's Personal Safety school program, ask questions, and learn additional ways to promote family personal safety rules.

60 minutes

Bully Prevention

Parent

► Bully-Free Families

This program fosters collaboration between the school and families in addressing bullying. Victim empathy, bystander intervention, proactive strategies and responses, role modeling, sibling bullying, and resources for support will be discussed.

60 minutes

Parent

► It's No Laughing Matter for Parents

(Talking About Gender Bullying)

It's No Laughing Matter • A Program for Parents supports families in effectively responding to an often covert form of bullying that uses gender to intentionally create harm. Discussion on how to handle uncomfortable situations while promoting respect and empathy will be presented.

60 minutes

Digital Safety

Parent

► Cyber Safety

What do modern parents fear more: stranger danger or Facebook friend? This program provides insight on appropriate and inappropriate behaviors when using digital technology, the true meaning of "online friends", and ways for families to incorporate cyber safety into their lives.

60 minutes

Parent

► Helping Your Children Wear Their Online Shoes

Specifically designed for parents, this program discusses privacy and promotes an understanding of how digital content is potentially viewed and stored in digital space. Online safety and assisting families with respectful decision making will be addressed.

60 minutes

